Dear Sir:--

I think of running over to Cuba for a few days, starting the latter part of next week.

Enclosed please find pass-port used when I last went there. The present one may be filled up in the same way, except that instead of forty-seven years I should be fifty-five years old.

Enclosed please find P.O. Order for $1.00, as that, I believe, is the present amount of fee; I paid $5.00 in '86. I do not expect to be accompanied by my wife this time, however.

Respectfully,

P.S. Much obliged for your prompt attention in the matter of the appointment of my friend, Mr. Buchanan.

Hope you are having your usual good luck with the ducks
just now in North Carolina.

I, Louis S. Frank, the Petitioner in the accompanying Petition for a passport, being duly sworn, depose and say: That I am forty-eight years of age, and that I have lived uninterruptedly in Chicago for thirty-two years, having been brought to the United States as a child by my parents in the year 1828. That in the year 1854 my father died, having made his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States, and that ~~when~~ I attained my majority I was duly naturalized, and from that time ~~hitherto~~ have enjoyed and exercised all the rights and performed all the duties of a citizen of the United States. That I have voted at my said home at the elections held during said period. That I have been sojourning in the City of Philadelphia for a few months, under the treatment of Dr. S. Weir Mitchell. That on leaving my home in Chicago I placed it in charge of the Protective Agency, who wired it, and the same is now inaccessible to any one but myself. That the said certificate of naturalization is among my papers in my said home. That Dr. Mitchell has directed me for my health to go to Europe at once, and has likewise forbidden me to go back to Chicago. That under the circumstances I cannot, either in person or otherwise, have access to my certificate of naturalization. That I do not remember the Court in which I was naturalized, the same

Gentlemen:-

We write to ask if you will kindly issue a new Passport in lieu of #23973 enclosed herewith, in favor of Dr. Theodore S. Fay.

Our friend, Dr. Fay, is now in Philadelphia, but leaves for Europe shortly, and we trust you will give our application for a new Passport for him, your usual early attention.

You will note that the enclosed document was issued in 1891, thus the age thereon will necessarily be changed to accord with the circumstances.

Further enclosing the customary Passport fee, we beg to remain

Yours very respectfully,

C. G. Hempstead & Son

Dear Sir;

On the 29th day of January 1891, your Department issued to Henry Schwarzwald a Passport for himself, accompanied by his wife, two minor children and maid servant. Mr. Schwarzwald together with his wife, two minor children and maid servant are again about to go abroad and desire a new Passport. Can you issue a new one if I send you the old Passport, or will it be necessary to prepare a new formal application? The general description of Mr. Schwarzwald is the same with the exception that his age is now forty instead of thirty-seven. An early answer will oblige,

Yours Very Truly,

Sir:

Your copy of "General Instructions" duly received and marks noted. In reply will say, that my dollar, the required fee was sent in my first letter to the Department, which asked for the necessary papers to be filled out and which letter had registered. I now hold the receipt for said letter. The misunderstanding comes from the fact, doubtless that the fee accompanied my request for blank and not the papers duly filled out. I now inclose another dollar for the required fee, but hope, on investigation, that you will find my statement correct and, forthwith, return the extra dollar.

Respectfully

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed please find a letter from our mutual friend Mr. Joseph Pool, in reference to my application for a passport to Europe, which I send herewith.

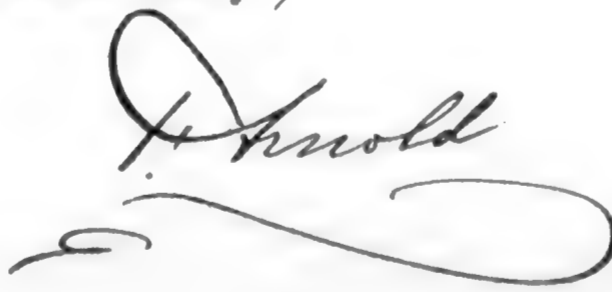

As my mother accompanies me I would also like to have her protected by the passport or in such a way as is customary.

In case this application does not suffice for the protection of both, will you kindly advise me.

We sail on the 7th of April and you will greatly oblige me by having the passport sent to address named in application, before that time.

I enclose herewith one dollar which Mr. Pool believes is the regular fee. Should this not cover the charges please wire me at my expense and I will at once make the deficiency good.
